LOOSE DIAMONDS
Reunite at Jovita's
April 10th, 2009

Loose Diamonds, well known purveyors of seamless American music, play Jovita's (1617 S. 1st Street), Friday, April 10th at 8:00 p.m., $7.00. Loose Diamonds was one of Austin's most acclaimed, awarded and beloved bands. Their last CD, Fresco Fiasco, was one of the New York Times' top ten albums of the year and Rolling Stone called them "the hottest rocking roots band in Austin." Loose Diamonds took a backseat to the solo careers of its two frontmen, Troy Campbell & Scrappy Jud Newcomb.

Scrappy Jud Newcomb is a respected producer, guitarist and singer/songwriter, who continues to push himself and his songs to new heights. He is also one of the Capital's most sought out sidemen. The Austin Chronicle said, "Scrappy' Jud Newcomb approaches the guitar the same way Brooks Robinson did his glove or Louis Pasteur his microscope....."

Troy Campbell has emerged as one of Austin's most promising filmmakers and animators, a sharp mind delving into the spot where music, culture and film converge, a mover and shaker with a passion for his subjects. Campbell continues to write and perform songs with a passionate edge. Springsteen called him "a rare voice."

Come out and share the Loose Diamonds' love of the song and songwriters and disregard of trends.
